

Reading Time

Reading 1

This is a convenience store. They sell many different kinds of food. A boy is walking behind his mother and eating peanuts. He's short and young. His mother is carrying a bag of food.

True or False?

- | | True | False |
|---------------------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. This is a bookstore. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. There are different kinds of food. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. A girl is eating peanuts. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

Reading Time

Reading 2

Look at this store. There's lots of good food at the store. Look at the store clerks. They're wearing orange uniforms. They are helping the customers. Ted has popcorn. Bob and Mike have chips. Kim and Jan have ice cream. Annie has soda pop. Joe and Bill have juice. They're all happy.

Fill in the blanks.

1. The store _____ are _____ orange uniforms.
2. The store clerks can _____ the _____.
3. Bill and _____ have _____.

Grammar Exercises

9.1. Change into yes/no questions.

a) Tom has a sister.

b) The children have a test today.

c) Tony can play the violin.

d) We like cake and ice cream.

e) Ted and Annie are going to school.

9.2. Change into negative.

Example:

I have candy.

I don't have candy.

a) He has soda pop.

b) She has a kite.

c) They have a ball.

d) He has juice.

e) She has crayons.

Grammar Exercises

9.3. Make questions using the words given.

a) Bob has a computer on his desk. (Where)

b) I have pizza for dinner tonight. (What)

c) The teacher has a marker in her hand. (Where)

d) These men have new cars. (What)

e) That boy has an ice cream cone. (What)

9.4. Make questions using " have ". Then give short and long negative answers.

a) a cat / a short tail

b) Robert / a sister

c) Tom and you / computers

d) that police officer / a gun

e) Jim and Sally / a puppy

Grammar Exercises

9.5. Unscramble the sentences.

a) color / is / What / favorite / your / ?

b) are / are / and / Those / these / shoes / socks / .

c) nice / I / green / but / is / like / Brown / .

d) are / Your / shelf / the / on / books / .

e) Sam / have / don't / Jack / chips / and / .

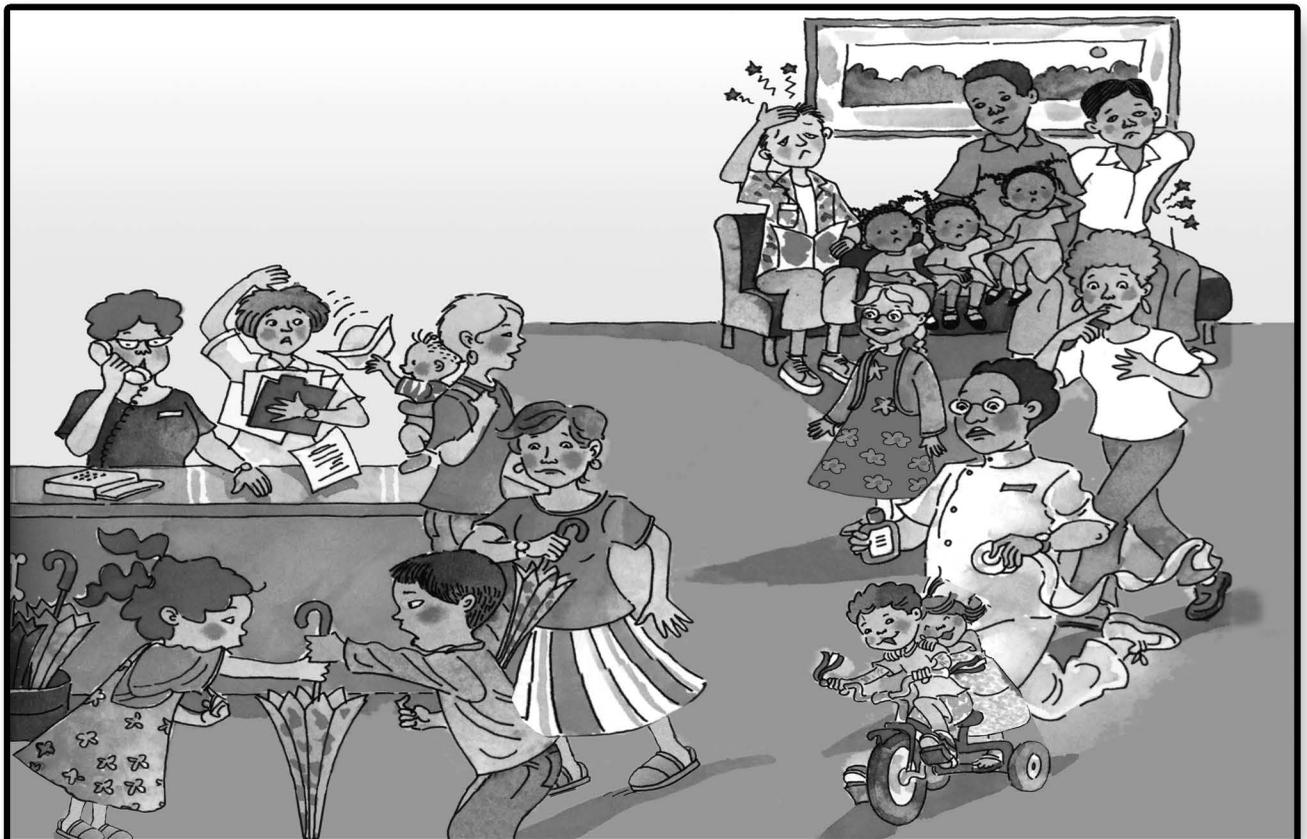

Reading Time

Reading 1

This is a clinic. Look at these people. They don't feel good. That's too bad. Annie's sister, Penny, is fighting with a boy. Penny thinks the boy has her umbrella. But it's not her umbrella. Her mother has her umbrella.

True or False?

- | | True | False |
|--------------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. The people are in the park. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. These people are sick. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. Penny is Annie's friend. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

Grammar Exercises

10.1. Change into yes/no questions.

a) Tom has a pain in his foot.

b) Barbara and Lucy have a cold.

c) The sweaters are on the shelves.

d) Mary can eat these peanuts.

e) I'm playing the flute.

10.2. Change into negative.

Example:

He has a cold.

He doesn't have a cold.

a) She has a sore throat.

b) He has a fever.

c) Tom has a cough.

d) Annie has a cold.

e) I have a rash.

Grammar Exercises

10.3. Make questions using the words given.

a) Kate is taking a shower. (Who)

b) Tom's mother has a bad cough. (What)

c) The boys have lunch at 2:30. (What time)

d) Sheila has a pain in her knee. (Where)

e) George can swim in that lake. (Where)

10.4. Make sentences about Joe using " but ".

Example:

Sally is playing.

Sally is playing but Joe isn't.

a) I have a backache.

b) You can't use chopsticks.

c) These boys are having a party.

d) Thomas isn't at the clinic.

e) Bob has a blue bike.
